Alice Parrish Has Comedy Role In "Mrs. Moonlight"

San Jose Players Give Sentimental Drama In Good Will Spirit

Alice Parrish, playing the part of Minnie, a Scotch servant, injects a pleasant dose of humor into Benn Levy's "Mrs. Moonlight," a sentimental drama, under the capable direction of Hugh Gillis, to be offered Thursday and Friday evenings in the Morris Dailey auditorium as a free Christmas gift to the public from the San Jose Players.

Minnie is one of those caustic, irrepressible characters who is continually reminding others of their faults and weaknesses.

"Miss Parrish is capturing the spirit of her part," states Mr. Gillis, "which is very difficult because the humor of the play rests almost entirely on this character."

Covering the time from 1881 to 1935, the play starts with Minnie as a woman of about middle age, who outlives most of the members of the cast, and is still alive as the final curtain falls.

Miss Parrish is an active member of the Players, and can be remembered for her character part in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever" last year.

Dr. Watson Will Speak At Seminar

Dr. E. C. Watson, Professor of physics at the California School of Technology, Pasadena, will speak at a meeting of the Science and Engineers Club in room S112, this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

Dr. Watson, "right hand man" of Miliken, world famous instructor, will speak on the subject of "Liquid Air".

"The talk will not be technical but interesting from the standpoint of general interest," said Dr. P. Victor Peterson, head of the Science department. "All students should attend the lecture whether especially interested in science or not."

DEMONSTRATIONS

Dr. Watson will present demonstrations of peculiarities exhibited by liquid air.

The physicist, who spends approximately half his time traveling and lecturing, has written many articles for the American Physics Review.

Speed To Be Discussed By Dr. Guild For Y.M.

"Speed" will be the topic of discussion today noon when Dr. Elliot W. Guild of the Social Science department addresses the Y.M.C.A. in room 3 of the Home Economics building.

Dr. Guild will emphasize the part speed plays in our daily life, and present statistics as to its injurious effects. He will also discuss the psychology of speed. All men students are invited to the meeting, which begins at 12 o'clock.

Baby Toro Hungry; Clamors For Spicy Holiday Stuffings

El Toro's big Christmas present to the inhabitants of dear old alma mammy S.J.S. appears today in the form of a gag contest to test the wits of would-be wags. Isn't that lovely?

HARD ON PROFS

The dope on the situation, as released by the supreme magistrate of El Toro, Mama Spangler, reveals the contest as a sort of "taking the profit out of the prof" gag. (Apologies for the phrase, a unique creation by the El Toros). It seems that any little slip of the lip pulled off by a professor on the campus which you happen to overhear would be excellent material for an entry to the contest. Humor in the form of satire, verse, cartoons, or gags in general, preferably founded on the remarks of sundry instructors of our glorious institution, is what is urged for contribution by ye editors. Anything pertaining to campus life will be acceptable, but the prof gags are the mirth-provokers most

Few More Tickets On Sale In Women's P.E. Office At 80 Cents

With a few tickets still available in the women's P.E. office, plans are complete for the traditional formal Christmas banquet which the Women's Athletic Association is giving tonight at 6:30 o'clock at the Hotel De Anza. The ticket price is 80 cents.

Dr. Dorothy Kaucher of the Speech department will read a Christmas story, and a robed quartet will sing carols from the balcony following numbers by a trio, as a part of the program being planned by Ruth Wright.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Each woman attending the dinner is asked to bring some small gift, nicely wrapped, and these will be placed around a large Christmas tree. The toys will later be distributed by organizations to local children.

The banquet tables will be decorated with evergreen wreaths, candles, and poinsettias reflected in mirrors, and the customary Christmas menu served will include turkey, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie.

COMMITTEES

Arrangements for the affair have been handled by Lillian Brown, general chairman, assisted by the members of W.A.A. council and the freshman women P.E. majors, who served as ticket salesmen.

Principal To Talk To Jr. High Majors

Miss Anna Fraser, principal of the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, will be the guest speaker of the Junior high majors and special secondary students dinner to be held in the cafeteria tomorrow night at 6:15.

President T. W. MacQuarrie and faculty members of the Education department will be guests at the dinner, after which a Christmas program will be presented.

Noon today is the deadline for the sale of the ten remaining tickets. They may be purchased in the Education office, room 161.

Men, Women Of State Art Clubs In Joint Party At Lion's Den

Members of Smock and Tam, women's art society, and Artizans, art fraternity, discarded paints and palettes for their "Get-Together" held at the Lion's Den in Alum Rock Saturday night.

From early evening to midnight the art students danced to radio music, played games, and devoured sandwiches, cake, and apple cider, vintage of 1935.

Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan, and Miss Leaana Fisher served as chaperones.

New Holliday Article Published In Magazine

Dr. Carl Holliday's article, "The Conquering Slogan," has been accepted by the Ave Maria magazine, according to a letter he received Friday.

The article deals with the use of slogans in American politics. The Ave Maria, which is published at Notre Dame University in Indiana, is the oldest Catholic magazine in the world.

Produced In New York With Alfred Lunt, Lynn Fontanne

"The Guardsman," Molnar's successful comedy that made Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne famous in New York theatrical circles, will be given a special production by Theatron, honorary organization of San Jose Players, January 16 and 17 in the Little Theater.

This play comes as a climax of the first half of the college season of plays and is presented by the advanced group of actors and alumni of the college. The two leads of the famous comedy will be played by Joy Arps and Jim Clancy. They will be supported by the outstanding players of recent years at the college.

OPENED IN NEW YORK

"The Guardsman" received international fame several years ago when it opened in New York with Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt in the leading roles. Since that time it has become a tradition of the American theater for high and hilarious comedy.

The local players cast in the leading roles are well fitted to play in this cast. All have had training in comedy and have shown particular proficiency there. Hugh W. Gillis and L. C. Mendenhall of the Speech department will direct the play.

LEADING ROLES

The two leading roles, those of the actor and his actress wife will be played by Jim Clancy, who in former years portrayed Shakespearean roles and those of high comedy; and Joy Arps, who is best known for her unusual

CONTRIBUTIONS TO TOY PILE EXPECTED AS DRIVE STARTS

In response to the Toy Pile drive being sponsored by Sigma Kappa Delta, journalism honor fraternity, presents will begin pouring into the Publications Office today and will be piled around the Christmas tree which will be set up and decorated this afternoon.

Several organizations have already made plans to contribute and with the donations of individual students, the journalism honor fraternity expects to surpass the successful goal reached last year.

Since the San Jose firemen, to whom the gifts will be turned over for distribution, have offered their service in painting and repairing old and worn toys, a call is issued to students to search their attics and cellars for their playthings of the past and also bring in toys their younger brothers' and sisters' have become tired of.

The tree with its many glistening decorations will be given to the Health Cottage at the beginning of Christmas vacation.

Varsity baseball pitchers and catchers will work out on the San Carlos turf by the gym. All candidates get in touch with Joe Blacow immediately. Workouts will start at 4 o'clock.

Let 'em Eat = Cake =

BY RAYMOND WALLACE

In going over some old philosophy notes I find a reference to the sense of humor of women. Some writers have contended that women do not possess a real sense of humor, but laugh only because men do, at the things they know by observation should produce laughter. This relieves me a great deal, because a certain girl laughs every time she sees me, and I used to fear that she was laughing at me. Now I realize that she is trying to make an impression upon me, but lacks sufficient experience in her choice of objects for amusement.

One of the most perspicacious members of the faculty accuses me of fickleness because she has seen me talking to two or three girls. That's not fickleness, madam, that's philandering.

Besides, most of them won't talk to me more than once or twice anyway.

It used to trouble me a bit because I didn't get along with girls; I had the idea that it might be my fault, that maybe I didn't know enough about them. I set out to remedy the defect, and read the "Kama Sutra," all the books about the Rover Boys, who were eminently successful with the feminine sex, "The Hindu Art of Love," the works of Lydia E. Pinkham, "The Actress in High Life," and "Robinson Crusoe."

Then, knowing all about women, I sallied forth to make conquests, but still it didn't work. It took me quite a little while to figure out that now I know too much about them. I am satisfied now, however; I am too smart to fall for girls.

Will someone please eject that ruffian in the back row who said they are too smart to fall for me?

I see by the papers that Pearl Buck's novel "The Good Earth," winner of the Pulitzer prize, is to be filmed with an all-Chinese cast. Our own Chas. Leong, what with his previous motion picture experience and all that, ought to make a pretty good villain or something. Besides, being a columnist, he ought to have the dirt on all kinds of earth, good and bad. Look at the stuff he gives us in Demi Tasse, which is ground twice a week.

Did you ever think of doing Fu Manchu, Charlie?

K-P Groups Plan Christmas Dinner

Four groups of the Kindergarten-primary club will hold a Christmas dinner at the Y.W.C.A. Thursday, December 19, at 6 o'clock.

The girls will get their trays as they go through the line at the Y.W.C.A. and go to the east room which has been reserved for the dinner.

A box is being prepared to give to a needy family which consists of a girl 8, another 13 and their mother. Clothing, food, toys and any other article that might be useable should be brought by the members of the club to the dinner Thursday night.

WHAT DO YOU THINK

Editor, Spartan Daily:

May an average college student express his opinion of a subject which is much in discussion at the present time? If so, thank you.

It seems to me that this subject of communism is getting rather tiresome, and I will say that I believe it would be a relief to most people if, when reading a daily paper, they could glance through it without meeting with some article or editorial concerning the subject. Why is everyone so afraid that the communists are going to blast our present system of government and wreck the nation? Certainly there is every indication of this trend of thought, as we all are aware of the fact that a group of people will not condemn, or even bother to acknowledge, something which they believe is unimportant.

And if our statesmen, newspaper editors, and prominent citizens are so afraid of communism, why don't they take the trouble to explain to the people of America just what communism is and why it wouldn't work in this country instead of inventing all sorts of weird tales and telling of bloodthirsty and demented Communists? With the present system of fighting communism about the only result that is gained is the arousing of the within the younger generation this taboo subject. I might go as far as to say that I have not been properly instructed in the true meaning of communism and why the system is an impossible dream, I might be tempted to delve into it and attempt to discover just everyone takes the trouble to icise it so much. This is an age when people are fairly broad-minded and intelligent, so why use the words of the Puritans in creating an undesirable situation, society both sides of the street and let it see for itself the of the subject, and then, if communism is such a threat to well-being, there need be no that an intelligent people adopt it.

Sincerely yours,
Emile B.

SPARTANS WHIP KAMEHAMEHA 22-7 BEFORE RECORD HAWAIIAN CROWD

SPARTANS SCORE IN ALL FOUR QUARTERS TO BEAT WARRIORS

HONOLULU T.H., Dec. 7.—Apparently unhampered by a five day sea voyage and humid tropical climate, a powerful San Jose (Calif.) State College football team defeated Kamehameha School 22-7 here today in a fast contest before 17,000 Shrine game spectators.

Scoring touchdowns in the first, third, and fourth periods, and a field goal in the second, the invaders from the mainland held a decisive edge over the Kam Warriors who were strengthened by several alumni stars and Watson played gallantly in an effort to stem the offensive tide of the victorious Spartans.

WATSON SCORES FIRST
San Jose's first score came six minutes after the ball game started when Burt Watson drove over from the five yard line to culminate a 59 yard offensive drive. Argilla missed the conversion.

Two minutes before the gun sounded for the half, San Jose added three more points to their total when Argilla kicked a field goal from the Kamehameha 25 yard line following Swartzell's recovery of Bishop's fumble on the 38 yard line a few plays earlier.

Coming back with a rush at the kick-off, Kamehameha scored their lone touchdown to come within two points of the Spartans at half time.

Wise passed to Kerr who received the ball on his own 35

Sports Scriveners Defeat Managers Club 24-0

and dashed sensationally down the sidelines for 60 yards before being forced out of bounds on San Jose's five.

On the second play, Wise swept end for a touchdown with Kerr converting.

With the opening of the second half, San Jose turned on the power and moved away nicely to garner 13 more points and cinch the ball game.

POWER DRIVE TO SCORE

Taking the second half kick-off on their own 34, the Spartans unleashed a 66 yard power drive to pay dirt.

A 29 yard gain on a lateral pass play put the ball on the Kam five from where Les Carpenter smashed it over. Argilla missed the try-for-point.

Wise and Kerr of Kamehameha filled the air with passes for the remainder of the contest in a vain endeavor to catch the Spartans and it was the interception of one of these tosses by "Bull" Lewis, San Jose fullback, that led to the final score minutes before the closing gun.

Lewis ran the intercepted pass 28 yards to Kam's 17 from where Shehtanian, Spartan alumni star who was allowed to play by agreement, passed to Don Baldwin for a touchdown.

Argilla made the try-for-point good.

The game was featured by brilliant Shrine pageantry that included seven colorful bands.

DEGROOT TELLS OF HONOLULU CONTEST

By Coach Dud DeGroot
(Special to Spartan Daily)

HONOLULU, Dec. 7.—San Jose won the seventh annual Shrine game here today before a sellout crowd of 20,000 fans, defeating a combined Kamehameha school and alumni team by the convincing score of 22 to 7, scoring in every quarter.

San Jose had control of the game throughout except for a few minutes in the second quarter when the famous ex-University combination of Wise and Kerr went into action to score the locals' only touchdown.

Playing on the most humid day of the year with the temperature above ninety, both teams suffered from the heat. Frequent substitutions on San Jose's part during the first half stood the visitors in good stead, and for the first time in history a mainland team came back in the second half to completely outplay the locals.

All of the members of the San Jose team played great ball with Watson, Carpenter, and Baldwin scoring touchdowns and Argilla kicking a thirty-five yard field goal from a difficult angle. Pura and Swartzell played 60 minutes and lost fifteen pounds each, with others losing almost as much. San Jose suffered no injuries and the boys are looking forward to a week's vacation before their departure December thirteenth on the President Coolidge.

SCRIBES WIN INITIAL TOUCH TACKLE GAME BY DECISIVE MARGIN

Riding on the ability of Gil Bishop, Gene Rocchi, and Bill Felse, the Spartan Daily's Sports Writers disposed of their first challenger in the art of touch football Friday afternoon when the Manager's Club was swept to a 24-0 defeat on a rain-soaked San Carlos street turf.

SCORE TWICE TO START

Scoring twice in the first quarter, once in the second, and once in the third, the typewriter pounders dominated the play for all save the final minutes when the loser's passing attack clicked spasmodically.

Bill Felse led the reporters in scoring, tallying twice in the first quarter and once in the third with Gene Rocchi accounting for the remaining points.

This afternoon the scribes will attempt to continue their winning ways against the Forestry Club, second opponent on their heavy schedule which grows hourly as a wave of enthusiasm for the sport sweeps the campus.

BISHOP'S PASSING

Once again the passing arm of Gil Bishop, who threw all but one of the winning tosses Friday, will be depended on to spark the scriveners to victory.

The probable starting line-up will include Bishop, Felse, and Rocchi in the backfield and Bertrandias, Murdock, Edmonds, and Peterson or Marlais in the line.

RADIO CLUB RECEIVES DE GROOT GAME STORY

By ROBERT KELLY

Successfully completing the most ambitious job it has ever attempted, the San Jose State Radio club received a summary of the San Jose State-Kamehameha football game by short wave radio late Saturday evening from the Schofield barracks in the Hawaiian islands.

The summary was written by DeGroot and sent out by the army operators, Holt and O'Connor, who cooperated to the greatest extent with the club. Bill Aldwell, of the army amateur net at Menlo, received the summary, in code, for the club.

CAMPUS CLUB RECEIVES

Bill Stevens and Charles Homewood, members of the campus club, handled the project, making contacts with the island operators. Through a message sent by Steve Murdock, sports editor of the Spartan Daily, Head Coach Dud DeGroot was asked to give a summary of the game to the Hawaiian operator, who agreed to contact him. The Schofield barracks are located 30 miles from the town where the game was played and the operator had some difficulty contacting DeGroot, but

"Brick" Mitchell Fails To Renew Contract

RENO, Nev., Dec. 7.—That the University of Nevada will have a new football coach next year was indicated today when C. L. "Brick" Mitchell did not seek renewal of his contract.

A new plan voted through by the students yesterday will put the task of selecting Mitchell's successor in the hands of the University administration along with full control of athletics.

the message finally got through at about 11 o'clock in the evening.

The summary, of about 200 words, was sent in about 10 minutes, and Aldwell decoded it and typed it as it was sent, finishing the typing as soon as the coded summary came over the transmitter of W6YL, the campus club's station.

GOOD JOB DONE

The completion of this job, which to the club's technicians seemed almost impossible, proved the practical value of the campus station, and, according to Bill Stevens, if a San Jose State team goes to the islands again, more extensive preparations will be made, insuring an even greater success.

Most of the messages which were given to the club by students, and faculty members were sent last week, and if any messages are sent back, they will be received through the campus station.

SONNY HARPER PROVES VALUE OF EDUCATION AT PISTOL CLUB MEET

Police Department-Ties State Team For Both First, Second, Places

"So sonny came to school and went home to show papa how its done," says Uncle William Wiltberger, head of the Police School, concerning the pistol meet between the State College and Burlingame police department pistol teams held in Burlingame Thursday afternoon.

HARPER FEUD

The State college team, captained by Jack Harper, met and defeated the Burlingame department team, coached by Captain John Harper, father of Jack, by a score of 28 points.

Both first and second places were tied, first place by Sergeant John Hartnett, captain of the police department team, and Bill Young; second place by Officer Earl Christensen and Leon Green.

MAYOR SPEAKS

Mr. C. A. Buck, mayor of Burlingame, welcomed the State college team to the city, and was present at the turkey feed provided by the Burlingame department after the meet.

Sergeant Hartnett demonstrated and explained to the students the mechanism of the Thompson machine gun, recently acquired by the police department.

Members of the State team are: Jack Harper, captain; Leon Green, Bill Young, Arthur Philpott, Don De Mers, and Jack Wilson.

The editors, hanging on the cautious side for fear their brain child may be run off the campus, put in the stipulation that anything turned in must be at least printable. Sort of wash it behind the ears, sabe? Of course, the nearer the borderline the better, but just stay on the right side of the fence.

RULES

Definite contest rules compiled by the editors are as follows:

1. Material—any sort of humor, satire, cartoons, or cartoon gags, and classroom boners.

2. Form—not more than 500 words in the case of regular material, and not more than 1500 words in the case of short stories.

3. Eligibility—open to all students and faculty members with the exception of staff members of El Toro and the kidnapper of Baby Toro—drat him!

4. Length of contest—including the first two weeks of the quarter beginning January 6, 1936, with Friday, January 17, as the closing date.

5. Prizes—Ah, yes, the prizes! It seems that the editors have as yet found themselves unable to announce them, but don't fret, dear ones, they no doubt will be ample.

A.W.S. PRESIDENT ISSUES INVITATION TO WOMEN'S TEA

Presenting the one social event of the year to which all women students and all women faculty members are invited, A.W.S. is sponsoring the annual Student-Faculty Women's Tea on Thursday from 4:00 to 5:00 in room one of the Home Economics building, announces Mary Youngren, president of A. W. S.

Marion Ruge is general chairman of the tea, which will be an informal affair. Musical entertainment will be sponsored by Margaret Miller, entertainment chairman, and decorations will center about the Christmas theme, according to Doris Roberts, decoration chairman. Virginia Hoppe is in charge of refreshments, and Betty Bruch, of invitations.

All women of San Jose State are urged by president Mary Youngren to attend the tea.

When this quarter began only 40 members were enrolled.

SEAFARING FOOTBALL BOYS TO BE ACCORDED OFFICIAL WELCOME

Program Will Include Motor Escort, Rally Dinner, Theater Party

Sparta's seafaring football men, though they may have been awed by the famed hospitality of friendly Hawaii, will find an even greater welcome accorded them by the old home guards of Washington Square, indicated the plans of the rally committee which met Friday afternoon in the close conspiracy of the council rooms.

WELCOME AT BOAT

Under the leadership and official guidance of the rally group, the DeGroot grid-machine will be met by an official welcome committee when they step off the gangplank in San Francisco on Tuesday, December 17.

A roaring motor escort will accompany the team back to the campus, and the boys, before they have time to say 'Kamehameha', will be ushered to an official honorary dinner in the cafeteria, to the attendant din of speeches and welcome greetings.

THEATER PARTY

To top it all, the rally committee plans a theater party for the team in the evening, with special entertainment skimmed from the best of campus talent.

All these good things are planned to welcome the boys back on December 17—if 'de mal de mer' does not already entertain the seafaring Spartans too heartily.

ENGINEERS' CLUB FORMS TODAY, DR. WATSON SPEAKS

Organization of the Engineers' club will take place this afternoon at four o'clock in the auditorium of the Science building.

Dr. E. C. Watson from Cal. Tech. will be the guest of the club, and he will give his demonstration of "Liquid Air".

Mr. Wilbur Moreland and Mr. Frank Peterson will be the club advisers.
